Abermule School News : Recently, Year Five and Six travelled to Cardiff on an all expenses paid trip, to meet Kirsty Williams , Minister for Education, as part of celebrating best practice in developing a creative curriculum. Not only did the children present their work, they also enjoyed a visit to the Senedd where they met Russell George and also visited St Fagan's.

We have also opened Harvey's Garden as a place to play! We extend our thanks to all those who have helped with this project. We received generous discounts from local businesses, financial donations from friends and family and lots of free labour. We have purchased plants, hard wearing toys and trucks, crayons, pens and wonderful hand crafted bench. Now all the children are enjoying playing in it and helping to keep it looking smart. All of Key Stage Two visited Rock Mill to explore Mr Fairweather's amazing garden. Whilst there we spotted lots of different mini beasts and we learned about different trees and plants.

Lunch Time Supervisor – Vacancy We are in need of a friendly person to supervise the Children's lunch and play time. Term weekdays 12pm – 1pm Could you or someone you know be that person?

KIDZ INC Vacancy: Assistant for KIDZ INC. 8hrs per week, Mon to Thurs, 3.30pm – 5.30pm.

Both these posts could be combined for the right candidate! Please contact the school office if you are interested. Jayne Harrison Pennaeth / Head teacher Abermule CP School, Tel: 01686 630240
